“When dealing with new construction, quality construction and design is a must...but equally critical in the process is that a builder is available to the real estate agent and the buyer. Midas Development Group has the reputation for superior building from conception through development. I've always found this company to be readily accessible and willing to listen to buyer concerns.”

Old Country Tile is truly passionate about tile. As experts in the industry, and one of the largest importers of tile and stone products, Old Country Tile is proud to offer an extensive array of ceramic tile, porcelain, natural stone, metal, glass, mosaics, marble, accent tiles, and so much more.

We have been serving our clients for more than 30 years. In 1978, three brothers banded together to turn their dream of establishing a family business into a reality. Old Country Ceramic Tile opened its doors October 2, 1978 at 27 Urban Avenue, Westbury New York. Hard work, diligence, and personal attention to their customers' needs contribute to the continued success of Old Country Tile today.

In 1985 we expanded, opening a second branch in Port Jefferson Station New York. Now 34 years later the three brothers, their children and grandchildren passionately run both stores with a common sense of family dedication and pride.

Our company was founded more than 30 years ago in a small village by the Mediterranean Sea in Castellon, Spain. Since then, we have been providing architectural and design solutions to homeowners and the architectural and design community with unparalleled innovation, quality, and service. The same family who founded the company back in 1970 continues to run the business with their highly regarded work ethics, values and integrity.

We have experienced incredible growth and today our worldwide presence extends to 70 different countries with more than 400 company owned showrooms, distribution centers and an extensive network of independent distributors and retailers. Our unique distribution model allows us to bring to you the latest in European design well ahead of independent distributors.

We started operations in the United States more than 20 years ago and have rapidly grown to become the choice resource for discriminating homeowners, builders, architects and designers. Our effective infrastructure of showrooms, retail partners and distribution centers enables us to inspire you with the latest product exhibits, rapidly deliver and tirelessly support the pre and post sales services so many have come to expect from the trusted leader in the tile industry, all at surprisingly affordable prices.

More specifically, in regard to our products, we offer a wide variety that includes but is not limited to porcelain and ceramic tiles, tumbled and polished marbles, large format wall and floor tiles, glass and mosaic tiles, adhesives and profiles for tile installation, stainless steel mosaics, as well as exterior façade systems.

One of our Design Consultants will meet with you at no charge, and work with you on all the aspects related to product selection and color/materials coordination.

Come to one of our showrooms today and experience luxury at its finest. Our exclusive selections are used extensively in large-scale vignettes intended to evoke elegant residential and commercial ambiances designed to delight and inspire our clients. An unmistakable attention to detail and an unexpected combination of distinctive materials, colors, textures and shapes affords an aesthetic versatility to create living spaces that suit each discerning homeowner's unique sense of comfort.

Sabra PNC Associate Ltd. is a high end, professional interior/exterior painting company. We are owner operated and take a hands-on approach to accommodate our customers. With over thirty years of experience, it is our guarantee to deliver an unparalleled product. Our customers' wants and needs are of foremost importance to us here at Sabra PNC Associate. We make it a top priority to apply our creative design services to turn our customers' dreams into a reality. Our capabilities expand beyond a standard paint job. We also offer a number of custom techniques including but not limited to faux finishes, venetian plaster, paint glittering, glazing, sponge on effects, special coating applications, roman stucco stone effects, and epoxy coatings on walls and floors.

Sabra uses the latest and highest quality products available in the industry to deliver an unparalleled product. Let us transform your ideas into a beautiful reality.

North Island Window and Door Inc. was born out of the necessity to provide great value to both contractors and homeowners alike. It is not enough to provide an affordable price. At North Island we pride ourselves on placing importance on providing our clients with quality materials, personal service, as well as knowledgeable information. This approach to our clients extends across our entire product line; including trim, doors, columns, and hardware.

We offer a wide array of trim products. These products include but are not limited to crown molding, base molding, casing, shoe molding, chair rails, panel molding, flat stock, and bead board sheets. All of these products have endless options through the large selection of designer collections we have for your choosing.

North Island Window and Door has been a proud distributor of both interior and exterior doors, bringing years of experience and knowledge to both professional builders and the do-it yourself homeowners. We distribute a wide variety of door manufacturers and are confident that we can meet your needs and style.

Our architectural columns offer timeless appeal and versatility. We offer a wide range of structural architectural columns designed for use in load-bearing applications. Our architectural columns are exceptional when you want to define exterior spaces with stateliness and character. They are beautifully crafted, flexible in design, and manufactured with unmatched durability with advanced materials; providing impact resistance, imperviousness to water damage, insects, and weathering.

Lastly, North Island's door hardware provides security and privacy, but with today's brands and technologies you don't have to sacrifice style for safety. Your front door creates the overall first impression of your home. A multitude of styles and finishes are available for exterior door hardware as well as knobs and levers for the interior of your home. To begin with door hardware for your front entrance; you should choose something substantial looking that will greet guests proudly to your home. Our selection of entrance handle sets is extensive and the options are limitless. In addition to entrance handle sets for front doors, you'll be sure to find a large selection of interior door hardware to suit your needs. Don't forget the hinges! We offer a large selection of hinges for indoor/outdoor use in styles and finishes to match your handle sets, levers, and knobs.

We place an extensive amount of importance in providing our clients with high quality materials, personal service, and knowledgeable information without sacrificing affordable prices. Our helpful sales consultants would be more than happy to examine your options and walk you through the selection process.

The choices are endless for railings, balusters and newel posts that will perfectly suit your home. A Step Above Stair Builders is owner operated, and offers reasonable rates as well as free estimates. Let us help you bring the warm, rich look of wood into your home.

A friend of ours recommended Midas Development Group when he heard we were looking to move to a larger home. We toured several high end homes built by Midas and were impressed by the consistent quality of work and attention to detail in each home. We fell in love with one of Midas Development Group's model homes and almost purchased it, but another family ended up purchasing the home. Although we were disappointed, Midas management assured us that they would help us build our dream home.

Midas understood our vision and brought it to life. They have shown creativity and imagination every step of the way ensuring that our home is beautiful and inviting. Building a home with Midas has been an enjoyable experience because they are honest, reliable, and always available to explain any detail. We have been working with Midas for over a year and we have grown so close we consider them family. We would recommend Midas Development Group to anyone trying to build their dream home because they truly know how to bring dreams to life.

Dr. and Mrs. Shaik Ali

After a rigorous and time consuming search for a high end home that met our standards and requirements, it was the quality of the work done by the Midas Development Group team that sold us on buying a Midas-built home. We were not only impressed with the uniquely high-quality work and design, but after we closed we really got to know the founder of Midas Development Group Frank Vomero, and his team.

Frank and The Midas Development Group personally designed and implemented many large projects, but importantly no work order was too small. From installing a dimmer to large undertakings such as finishing a basement, Midas was always available on short notice as well as on-site every day for a year and never left a detail to chance. Midas Development Group always followed through on exactly what they said they would do without fail.

Midas only uses the highest quality sub-contractors, and is 100 percent focused on delivering on-time and in budget. Two years later, we continue to work with Midas Development Group as we add features to our home.

Evan Damost

With my architectural plans in hand, I began to seek out builders in the general Brookville area who had built luxury homes that met my rigorous standards. Once I identified these builders, I interviewed them as well as their past clients to determine if we were compatible on a number of levels. Specifically price, attention to detail, creativity, execution and a general feeling of confidence in their ability to meet my high standards.

Since this was the first project of this type that I had undertaken, I was understandably very cautious and understood full well that the success of this project was going to be largely dependent on the builder living up to my expectations, or in this case exceeding them.

After choosing Midas Development Group and as the project unfolded I could not have been more satisfied with the caliber of the craftsman employed, the expertise of the principals, the accuracy of their guidance and their strict adherence to scheduling.

The original build-out was expected to take 12 months, but it was understood that there would be many loose ends that would require the ongoing assistance of the builder. Midas has always been willing to help with these post-contract items and lend their expertise and assistance as needed.

All in all, I am very pleased with the job Midas did for me and I would be happy to recommend them as builders to anyone considering a project of this size and caliber.
